

Reinhard E. Wurm

MD

Head of the Department of Radiation Oncology, Klinikum Frankfurt (Oder), Germany

Specialization

Brain tumors
Vascular malformations
Functional conditions
Lung, liver, abdomen, spine, head and neck and prostate including oligometastases

Spoken Languages

English
German

Education & Professional Experience

- Studied medicine and dentistry at the Universities of Essen and Tübingen
- Trained in General Medicine and Neurology in Reutlingen and Duisburg
- Trained in Radiation Oncology at Heinrich-Heine University in Dusseidorf
- Trained at the Royal Marsden Hospital and Institute of Cancer Research in London, UK
- Served as chief physician at the Department of Radiation Oncology, Charité-University Medicine Berlin
- He is the head of the Department of Radiation Oncology at Klinikum Frankfurt (Oder) in Germany

Contributions and Achievements

- Attained national and international recognition for clinical excellence
- Played a pivotal role in advancing stereotactic radiosurgery and radiotherapy
- Significant contributions to the development and clinical application of medical products in collaboration with Brainlab
- Pioneered the use of image-guided radiotherapy for real-time monitoring and breath control
- Contributed to advancements in the non-invasive and image-guided treatment of tumors, vascular malformations and brain disorders

“Novalis Certified is an independent program directed by the Novalis Circle and is available to qualified centers that show an exceptional commitment to safety and quality in the treatment of cancers with radiosurgery and stereotactic body radiation therapy.”